Dear Mr. Brown:

Let me begin by saying that you are one of my all-time favorite actors. Your performance as Tommy Brown, in the movie "Nashville", was brilliant. Recently, some friends and I put on a musical tribute to Nashville, and I was honoured to play your role, singing that excellent song, "Bluebird". I felt as though you were there beside me... for that evening I, Garth Johnson, was channeling Tommy Brown.

I am also a big fan of several of your other movies, such as "M*A*S*H" (of course), "Dynamite Brothers", "Pacific Inferno", and "Doom Beach". In fact, at least once a year, my friends and I get together and have "Timothy Brown Movie Night". If we knew when your birthday was, we could hold it annually on that day. I can't understand why you didn't become a really big star. You had it all going for you... looks, talent, the whole shebang. What did you do during the 90's when you weren't acting in movies? My bet is theatre. It would be cool if you worked with Robert Altman again, he seems to really get the best performances out of you. Anything new coming up? I look forward to seeing in a major role again.

Your fan,

Garth Johnson

P.S. Could you please send me an autographed picture, perhaps from the Nashville era?
