Dear Fabio:

My friends dared me to write this letter. The thing is; I actually bear a striking resemblance to you. So much so, that I often get approached by fans of yours, asking for autographs and/or kisses. I have to admit, once or twice, I refrained from telling them the truth. So, I was wondering, if you ever have need of a doppelganger, I think that I am, perhaps uniquely, qualified. I would work cheap, and be quite willing to do such things as, sign autographs, ride roller-coasters (sparing you from getting hit in the face by birds), make public appearances, or even just be your stand-in when you are filming something. I am willing to relocate, and I can travel at a moment's notice.

Yours in Fabioness,

Garth Johnson

P.S. Could you send me an autographed picture of you looking heroic?
