Dear Mr. McKellar:

It's me again. Since you have chosen to ignore my previous letters, I am writing to let you know you that you are now on my enemies list. Previous members of this list have included, Phil Hartman, Princess Grace of Monaco and Terry Sawchuk. I think you get the drift... if not, you are dumber than you look.

Good luck,

Garth Johnson

P.S. If you send me an autographed picture, like I asked for in the first place, I may change my mind.
