Dear Mr. Gregory/Murdock:

I've been watching Barney Miller for a long, long time now, and I don't like what you are up to. Not only are you rude to all the men in the precinct, but you are also really sneaky. I think you would send any of them up the river in a second. Even Barney who you pretend to like. Don't you understand that they are doing a difficult job and that just because they don't act like the old time cops that doesn't make them bad cops. Please lay off of them, they're just trying to do their jobs. Maybe you should try listening to them instead of just talking at them all the time. You remind me of my Dad who never listened to anyone and just told people stuff until my mother left him and took all the kids with her. This kind of thing could happen to you if you don't watch out. I am not against you, I am for you, and I really believe that you are a decent guy at heart, so try to lighten up a bit, and you will find that the guys at the precinct will like you more and you will be happier.

I Hope This Didn't Offend You.

Garth Johnson

P.S. Could you please send me an autographed picture of you smiling?
